

BANGALORE

Local Temples Tours

Half day City Tour	Per Person Cost US$ 53 (Single)
Duration 4-5 hours	Per Person Cost US$ 33 (2 Pax onwards)

Proceed for a half-day sightseeing tour of Bangalore City, proceed to Bull Temple, a temple located in Basavanagudi and it is dedicated to Nandi Bull, the vahana (vehicle) of Lord Shiva.

The temple has been built in the Dravidian style of architecture. There is huge idol of Nandi Bull inside the temple, measuring 4.5 m in height and 6.5 m in length.

Then proceed to Gavi Gangadhareshwara Temple, an example of Indian rock-cut architecture was cut out of monolithic rock probably in the 9th century. Gavi Gangadhareshwara Temple is famous for its mysterious stone discs in the forecourt and the exact planning allowing the Sun to shine on shrine in certain time of the year. The temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva. The temple contains also a rare idol of Agni, the God of fire.

Proceed to visit ISKCON Temple, a temple located on a seven-acre hillock, known as the Hare Krishna Hill, in Chord Road and dedicated to Lord Krishna. ISKCON is built in the Neo-Classical style, which combines the conventional elements of temple architecture with modern high-tech amenities. Then proceed to Ragigudda Anjaneya Temple, a temple dedicated to Hanuman. Ragigudda temple also has a Shivalinga and the Rama, Sita, Lakshmana, Hanuman shrine in the same precinct. There is a smaller temple dedicated to Ganesh, Navagrahas and Rajarajeshwari at the base of the hillock. Return to the hotel.